1. At a conference in Harbin on 22 May, three Mongol representatives of Manchurian and Western Mongolia and one representative from Hulunbuir decided that the name of the Wangyehmiao Government, known as the Inner Mongolian Autonomous Government, should be changed to the Inner Mongolian Labor Government.
2. The Mongols at this conference were YUN Tae and Hafongga from Manchurian Mongolia and Erkimbato from Hulunbuir; the name of the Western representative is unknown.
3. It was further decided that Hulunbuir would be known as the Hulunbuir Special Self-Governing District, since it does not come under the jurisdiction of the Wangyehmiao regime but rather has direct relations with the Mongolian People's Republic and USSR Governments. The head of the Hulunbuir Government is Erkimbato.
4. CHIN Yao-chu, a Mongol, is the head of Naongmurun League. This League comprises the area of former Hsingan East Province of the Manchukuoan regime.
5. The head of Jooda League is Sagarajap. Jerim and Josoto Leagues have been retained but their leaders are unknown. Hsingan League is led by Oyongdalai. Comment. The Central Government does not recognize Hulunbuir as a league but includes it with the area which the Communists have made into Naongmurun League. Hsingan League is also newly created.)
6. Badmalabdung (Prince PA), Genjurjap (probably same as Ganjuurjao, [REDACTED] reporting his appearance in Wangyehmiao from the USSR via Harbin and Hailar) and Jenjurjap (probably same as Jongjurjap) (brothers), and KUO Wen-lin, who were taken by the Soviets to Russia after V-J Day, are all back in Inner Mongolia.
7. Reports of major discontent among young Mongols with the regime of Hafongga are current. These Mongols are greatly opposed to the increase of collaboration between Hafongga and the Communists. They are opposed to both the Chinese Communist Party and the Kuomintang. Two underground parties have been formed - the Mongolian Youth Party and the Mongolian Revolutionary Party.
8. The Wangyehmiao regime is no longer inflicting punishment of any kind of Mongols who go to Communist areas from Nationalist areas. For this reason there may be expected a great migration from such cities as Changchun, Mukden, perhaps even Kalgan and Feiping.
